Hello!
user2

I feel that Republicans are far more hypocritical than democrats.
user2

i totally agree!!
user1

They are concerned with denying access to abortions and purposely trying to make Planned Parenthood fail. So many people rely on those services.
user2

They don't care about restricting access to guns either
user2

We just had another school shooting. Where is their outrage?
user2

I really don't understand their way of thinking.
user1

They care more about a woman having an abortion than the children who lost their lives in the school shooting.
user2

I agree with you
user2

and I don't understand how any of them could support Trump.
user2

They are out here making life difficult for all of us.
user1

I didn't think people were actually that stupid
user2

Yes they are!
user2

Why are prescription costs so high?
user2

Why don't the rich pay their fair share of taxes?
user2

It all makes zero sense
user2

Haha.. trump you say... dude made America almost fall in a shit hole
user1

Right?!?!?!
user2

I hate his stupid little O mouth.
user2

and everything that comes out of it
user2

Well republicans also don't support increase of minimum wage..
user1

BEcause they are all greedy assholes
user2

see the way Seattle has had economic growth due to increase of up to $15 per hour
user1

They don't want to raise the minimi=um wage, but they are the first to complain when no one is there working
user2

I agree! We need to look to them and learn more
user2

I love that Starbucks is starting with the unions too
user2

They need to get into more businesses
user2

exactly, they cause fear and unnecessary havoc.
user1

yes! and they focus on the wrong things
user2

Well i hope one day they will have liberal minds
user1

like Critical Race Theory...that is not actually being taught in schools. It's a college level concept.
user2

exactly
user1

so, even though kids should be learning about racism and such, CRI is way over most high schooler's heads
user2

I hope we go blue again dueing the nextg election
user2

and we need more supreme court justices
user2

Racism will never end.. its sad but we have to accept it
user1

I agree. very sad
user2

somehow i feel the justice system is not fair
user1

Yes! That's so true too!
user2

nice chatting with you..!!
user1

Same to you!
user2

Have a great day!
user2

you too!!
user1
